Other Business:

Paul John, Executive Director of Georgia Independent Auto Dealers Association (GIADA) brought to the Board's attention some of the problems that he is currently experiencing with used motor vehicle brokers. Mr. John would like the board to consider changing the current Board Rule 681-3-.05 and require applicants who conduct business at a location where other business is conducted to have a dedicated display area that can house up to 10 cars. Mr. John suggested that one way that this could be done is by updating the current zoning certificate. Mr. John presented to the Board a copy of a revised zoning certificate that he had developed. After much discussion, the Board asked Graham Barron, Assistant Attorney General, to conduct research regarding the possibility of changing this Board Rule.

Jonathan Shoemaker moved, Alex Grovenstein seconded, and the Board voted to approve the following application for renewal:
