

COMMISSIONER OF SECURITIES
STATE OF GEORGIA

UNIFORM ACT IMPLEMENTATION ORDER 2009-04

ORDER ADOPTING ALL FORMS APPEARING ON WWW.SOS.GA.GOV/SECURITIES

The Commissioner of Securities for the State of Georgia (the "Commissioner") has determined that:

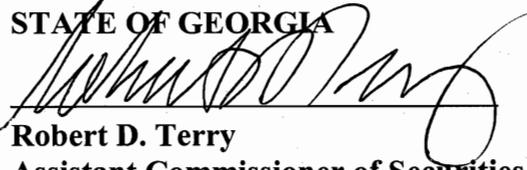

- (1) On July 1, 2009, the Georgia Securities Act of 1973 (the "1973 Act") was repealed by act of the Georgia General Assembly and that the Georgia Uniform Securities Act of 2008 (the "2008 Act") became effective on this same date.
- (2) Pursuant to the 2008 Act, registrants and other entities routinely file various forms with the Commissioner.
- (3) Prescribing the structure, organization, and content of the required forms is in the public interest and consistent with the purposes of the 2008 Act.
- (4) Pursuant to Sections 10-5-74(a)(1) and 10-5-80(a) of the 2008 Act, the Commissioner has the authority to issue all forms necessary to administer the 2008 Act.

In accordance with the above, the Commissioner hereby ORDERS that all forms that appear on www.sos.ga.gov/securities or any other successor website, as they now appear and as they may change from time to time, are and shall be adopted as the official forms of the Commissioner for the purposes provided thereon.

This Order shall be effective as of July 1, 2009 and shall remain effective until modified or vacated, or superseded by Rule.
