Attorney General's Report

The Board accepted the report as presented.

Open Session Correspondence

- Reference Forms - The Board discussed and agreed to allow completed reference forms to be sent directly to the board office (As is currently the process), or they may be sent to the applicant in a sealed envelope to be submitted with the application package. Staff will update the language in the reference form cover letter to reflect this change.
- Administrative Authority – The Board granted staff the administrative authority as follows:
  - When the board determines that an applicant does not qualify for a Class 2 license but appears to meet the qualifications for a Class 1, staff may include language in correspondence to the application suggesting they submit a request to withdraw the application to avoid a 'denial of application' and consider applying for a different licensure type that may better fit their situation.
- Rules Review - The Board requested the Executive Director provide information on the rule amendment process and set a Rule's Review Committee meeting.
