

Georgia Ethics and Jurisprudence Course Checklist

In order for a Georgia Ethics and Jurisprudence Course to gain approval by the Georgia State Board of Physical Therapy, the course must: 1) be sponsored and/or conducted by a Georgia college or university with an accredited physical therapy education program; or, 2) be administered by a provider which holds a current Physical Therapy Association of Georgia (PTAG) Approval Certificate; and/or 3) satisfy the criteria outlined in the table below.

Criteria	YES	NO	COMMENTS
Course must be worth 4 contact hours
Course must cover Georgia Ethics & Jurisprudence to include the most current versions of:
The Georgia General Provisions [O.C.G.A. §§ 43-1-9 through 43-1-34]
Georgia Physical Therapy Practice Act [O.C.G.A. § 43-33]
Physical Therapy Board Rules [Chapter 490]
Board Policies and FAQs
A Review of the Georgia State Board of Physical Therapy website to include how to routinely navigate the website
Georgia Ethics & Jurisprudence Courses must also include:
A review of aPTitude or the online continuing education tracking system approved by the Board
A review of any Proposed Rules on the Board website (if applicable)
Case studies and/or active discussions on topics involving professional accountability, ethical behavior, and professional boundaries
Certificates of completion must identify:
The course name as Georgia Ethics and Jurisprudence
The sponsoring entity, developer, and/or instructor of the course with appropriate signature(s)
The location of the course (i.e. address where course is taught, online, home study, etc.)
Date(s) of the course and number of hours awarded
Name of Course Participant			